Countries such as Nepal and Bangladesh had also expressed interest in joining the project, known as the Turkmenistan-Afghanistan-Pakistan-India (TAPI) pipeline, said Turkmenistan's ambassador to India Parakhat H. Durdyev at an event on India-Central Asia relations organized by the Ananta Aspen Centre. His comments came ahead of Prime Minister Narendra Modi's week-long visit, beginning 6 July, to Central Asian republics—Kyrgyzstan, Kazakhstan, Tajikistan, Turkmenistan and Uzbekistan.

Exercise Malabar: Japan Navy to join India, US in Bay of Bengal

The Indian Express | June 30th, 2015
Although Japan had been part of the 2014 Malabar exercise held at its Sasebo naval base, India and US had kept Tokyo out of the initial planning for the current edition. This was because the 2015 Malabar exercise is scheduled to be held in the Bay of Bengal in October this year. India and US have restricted the Malabar largely to a bilateral format after China had protested against the 2007 exercise held in the Bay of Bengal. Along with the Indian and American navies, the 2007 edition had included the Australian, Japanese and Singaporean navies.
